

How to Find a Cooling
Center in Your Area
Updated 6/21/17 2:00 pm

Please always make sure to call the listed numbers for the most up to date information.

Nevada County

Information and Assistance- Connecting Point 2-1-1 Nevada

Dial 211 or Call Toll Free (844) 319-4119

<https://www.facebook.com/211nevadacounty/>

Advising seniors to go to libraries. Call for additional available resources.

Currently no "official" cooling centers are open. County opens cooling centers if temperatures are 105 degrees or over for 3 consecutive days with night time temperatures above 75 degrees.

Placer County

Information and Assistance – Seniors First

Call (530) 889-9500

<https://seniorsfirst.org/sf-programs/information-assistance/>

Advising seniors to go to libraries, stores and restaurants.

County opens cooling centers if temperatures are 105 degrees and over for 3 consecutive days with night time temperatures staying above 75 degrees.

Sacramento County

Information and Assistance- Community Link

Dial 211 or (916) 498-1000 Press 6 for Senior Resources

<http://www.211sacramento.org/211/>

Currently there are at least eight (8) cooling centers open. Call for a center nearest to you.

Sierra County

Call (530) 993-4770 Open M-F 9am-2pm

Loyalton Senior Center

302 First Street, Loyalton

Call Lori Wright (530) 993-4576 after hours for assistance.

Yolo County

Information and Assistance - Senior Link

Call (530) 207-4250, M-F 8:30-5:00

Advising seniors to go local senior centers and libraries.

Yuba County

Senior Information and Assistance

Call (530) 742-2334 M-F 8:30-4:30 Closed noon-1:00

There are currently two cooling centers open:

St. John's Church

1-9pm daily until Saturday June 24, 2017

800 D Street

(530) 742-8829

Yuba County Seniors

June 19, 2017- June 23, 2017 Open 9-3pm

4979 Olivehurst Ave. Olivehurst

(530) 741-0777

Sutter County

Yuba City Senior Center

Open 7:30-8:00pm until further notice

777 Ainsley Ave. Yuba City

Call (530) 822-4649 Contact: Jessica Peters